

Being an erotica author, Coley could turn words into a lusty scene in seconds. She could write about sex but was finding it difficult to write about love. She just couldn't find the hero for her book... or in real life, for that matter. She needed to find the passion to write again. She needed to find passionâ€“ period. With one kiss, Coley discovers that a long time friend may be the man she had always been looking for. Vance was strong, sexy, loving and extremely alpha. Coley also knew he lived a lifestyle of Domestic Discipline. He loved, he led, and he spanked his women. She can submit to the man. But can she submit to the love? Rebecca Hadley has hit a low point in her life. What with a recent divorce, a crappy job, and nothing to look forward to, she's a lost soul. Her only solace are her girlfriendsâ€“but their happy relationships only serve to highlight her own loneliness. Sawyer Monroe is a highly sought after tattoo artist, with a long waiting list and a history of dating pierced, inked, kinky women. So when an unassuming little redhead named Rebecca walks into his studio and asks for a custom piece to cover her entire back, he's amazed to find that she's getting under his skin just as much as his ink is getting under hers. When Rebecca decided to get a back tattoo, she had no way of knowing that it would alter much more than her appearance forever. Sawyer Monroe is opening her mind to things she would never have even considered before, and it soon becomes clear that he wants to give her a whole lot more than some body art. But can he help her find what she's been looking for? And will she be willing to accept his offer of a Traditional Change?
